Grammar Lesson 3 - Adjectives vs Adverbs

In this grammar lesson, we will learn the difference between adjectives and adverbs. We begin by defining them,

Adjective: Adverbs:

Many adverbs are formed by adding the suffix -ly at the end of an adjective, however don't confuse the two. We'll take a look at some examples to help differentiate between the two.

1.

2.

3.

| 4.               |          |           |         |            |             |          |            |            |
|------------------|----------|-----------|---------|------------|-------------|----------|------------|------------|
|                  |          |           |         |            |             |          |            |            |
|                  |          |           |         |            |             |          |            |            |
| 5.               |          |           |         |            |             |          |            |            |
|                  |          |           |         |            |             |          |            |            |
|                  |          |           |         |            |             |          |            |            |
| $Adjective \ or$ | Adverb . | Effective | Writing | Practice - | Tutorial.   | Northern | Illinois U | niversity. |
| -y               | ,        |           |         |            |  |          | 3.2.0      |            |