ENG4U/ENG3U Final Exam

April 22, 2022

1 Total Marks : 50

2 Preamble

This final exam covers everything we have learned throughout the course.

3 Allowed Aids

The following aids are allowed on the Test

- Pencil, Pen, Eraser, Highlighter, Ruler, Protractor, Spare sheets of blank paper.
4 Remarks:

- When referencing quotations, use proper MLA citation.

- You do not have to reference exact line/page numbers.

- All answers are to be composed in a coherent, unified manner using a multi-paragraph structure.

- Write legible answers and use Standard English! Implement the Grammar techniques we have learnt throughout the term to the best of your ability.

- PROOFREAD all your work before submitting.

5 Name and Date:

_____   _____
Name   Date

Part A - Knowledge (19 marks)

Question 1. (7 marks) Define the following literary devices;

  (a) Personification:

  (b) Irony:

  (c) Foreshadowing:

  (d) Metaphor:

  (e) Oxymoron:

  (f) Imagery:

  (g) Symbolism:

Question 2. (4 marks) We studied that, generally speaking, there are four different types of Essays. Describe the Narrative type, in particular, describe the authors purpose, style and approach found in a narrative essay.

Question 3. (4 marks) Describe the difference between a formal and informal essay. In particular, comment on the differences in the audience, the purpose/goal, how the thesis is stated and the overall tone.

Question 4. (4 marks) We studied various methods that authors use to develop information within their essays. Describe the Cause & Effect method of development. In particular, comment on the manner in which arguments are developed as well as in which situation's this method would be useful.

Part B - Poetry (7 Marks)

Question 5. Read the poem "Night Clouds" and answer the questions below;

(a) (1 mark) Describe a theme you have observed throughout the poem.

(b) (2 mark) Describe the overall tone/mood of the poem

(c) (2 mark) Identify where the author uses Imagery and describe the affect. (Provide at least two verses)

(d) (2 mark) Identify where the author uses Personification and describe the affect. (Provide at least two verses)

Part C - Interpretation of Literature (12 Marks)

Write a multi-paragraph ($\sim$ 300 words) response to ONE OF THE FIVE topics below;

1. Compare and contrast either of the following:

   Antony & Brutus

   Cassius & Brutus

2. Compare and contrast Ellen from The Lamp at Noon and Portia from Julius Caeser.

3. Compare and contrast the funeral speeches for Caeser given by Brutus and Caeser. Describe the effect that both speeches had.

4. Explain how Brutus's inability to make rational decisions lead to his destruction. (Provide at least two examples)

5. Flattery is a tool used a number of times by characters in Julius Caeser. Gives examples of scenarios where flattery is used and describe their effect.

Response to Question : _____

(Part C Continued)

Part D - Analysis and Reflection (12 marks)

Write a multi-paragraph ($\sim$ 300 words) response to ONE OF THE FOUR topics below. In your composition, you may apply any effective and appropriate method of development which includes any combination of cause & effect, compare & contrast, persuasion, description or narration. Your response may draw upon any aspect of your life : previous readings, your own experiences, the experience of others, etc.

1. The significance and dramatic irony of the following passage from Brutus;

   "I found no man but he was true to me"   (V : V 35-40)

2. "The media is a power tool of persuasion". Do you agree or disagree? Explain.

3. Do you feel as if Santiago was a good role model for Manolin? Explain.

4. Justify who you feel was the protagonist & antagonist of Julius Caeser.

Response to Question : _____

(Part D Continued)